

FEATURES

- Standard plate, 2 gang size
- Brushed stainless steel wall plate
- Matching mounting hardware included
- 1/2" bushing for cable or connector installation
- Multiple connectors allow audio/visual control in classrooms
- Wall plates may be customized for each application
- Permanent engraved labeling

The RCI Custom Products CR220SS is the choice when a classroom project demands an attractive solution yet a rugged, high quality control plate. The wall plate is stainless steel for the durability needed in a classroom application. Each plate includes pre-mounted connectors and permanent engraved labeling for identification. Units fit in a standard depth 2 gang E.O. box.

Equipped as follows:

- BTX RCA female to female barrel (pass-thru) for video
- BTX RCA female to female barrel (pass-thru) connectors for L & R audio
- BTX HD-15 female to female (pass-thru) for PC VGA video output to a projector
- Jerrold F-connector, female to female (pass-thru) for TV input
- 1/2" bushing to allow cable pass thru or field connector installation
- Permanent engraved labeling is custom per project application
- Matching mounting hardware is included

A&E SPECIFICATIONS

The Classroom audio/video control wall plates shall be the CR220SS and be equipped with RCA female pass thru connectors for video, RCA female pass thru connectors for L & R audio, HD-15 VGA female pass thru connector, F-connector female to female pass thru and a 1/2" Heyco bushing for cable pass thru. Connectors shall be pre-mounted for proper installation and isolation and shall include permanent engraved custom labeling for identification. Wall plate shall be a standard 2 gang stainless steel plate with matching mounting hardware.